Annual Installation

Mrs. Heinlein To Direct Auxiliary

Mrs. Henry F. Heinlein, 2208 Gramercy, assumed the presidency of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary at the annual installation at noon Tuesday, June 14 at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro. Mrs. William C. Boswell, outgoing president, opened the meeting and gave a report on the many activities of the Auxiliary during the past year, after which she introduced Mrs. Eugene Cook, a past president, who acted as installing officer for the day.

Installed with Mrs. Heinlein were Mmes. Paul Winn, first vice president; James E. Kimble, second vice president; Carl Larkins, third vice president; Richard J. Cusimano, recording secretary; Leroy Pulliam, corresponding secretary; James C. Anderson, treasurer; and Dean Sears, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Heinlein, having taken the gavel, introduced her chairmen for the coming year. They are Mmes. Benjamin H. Smith, credits; Ernest G. Butt, reception desk; Richard Floyd, telephone; Robert Rojo, reservations; Robin A. Bingham, identification; John A. Barrington, hospitality; John Popovich, magazine cart; John Bruno, Pinkie; Harold Hayes, sewing; George Jungkind, maternity tea; Robert Triplitt, sunshine; Leonard Ensminger, youth; William Crooker, staff meetings; Robert S. Sleeth, door prize; and Park Densmore, publicity.

The Auxiliary, for the first time, presented service pins to members who have donated more than 200 hours of service during the past two years. Receiving awards were Mmes. James C. Anderson, Robin A. Bingham, William C. Boswell, Harold Hayes, Henry F. Heinlein, Don Hyde, John Popovich, and Dean Sears.

Leonard A. Ensminger, Administrator of the Torrance Memorial Hospital, thanked the Auxiliary on behalf of the hospital and its Board of Directors for the many contributions and hours of service. He presented each member of the Auxiliary a Certificate of Appreciation for services rendered to the hospital. Special certificates will be sent to Mrs. Don Lasell and Mrs. Jack Long, each of whom donated well over 200 hours of service before moving from the area.

Party Fetes John Kemps

Mr. and Mrs. John Kemp of Danielson Conn., formerly of Torrance, who are spending 10 days visiting here were complimented at a party given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Rippey, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Baldwin at the Rippey home, 1629 Fern Ave.

An evening of swimming and dancing was followed by a midnight buffet supper. In the party with the honor guests and the hosts were Messrs. and Mmes. Joe Helpand, Don Anderson, Jack Day, Bert Smith, Richard Beecher, Ray Lires, Robert Waddell and Howard Altermatt.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Aiken, 22615 Gaycrest Ave., were among the guests at a dinner given by Dr. Alex Wilcox and his wife, Dr. Ruth Wilcox of Rolling Hills at an Ingleswood restaurant last Friday evening. The party honored Alex Wilcox II, who was graduating from Narbonne High school.

Bridge Club

Mrs. B. W. Roberts entertained her club at a bridge luncheon last Monday at her home, 1609 Amapola Ave.

Her guests were Mmes. Ruby Dix, Helen Adams, Betty McNeil, Juanita Thomsen, Laura Felker, Helen Crooker, and Alma Smith.

With this meeting, the club recessed for the summer except for a luncheon to be held at Del Mar in July.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"These Problems, Part of Living"

Dear Ann Landers: I've been reading your column for a long time and now I feel I must speak out against it.

In the past three weeks you have printed letters concerning unwed mothers, juvenile delinquency, and sexual relations outside of marriage. You also print letters from people who think to excess and get into trouble because of their stupidity and lack of self-control.

My sister who lives in Europe is visiting me. She has read your column every day. This is her comment: "Why do American newspapers print this kind of thing? It makes your country look like a land of ill and low-class people."

I feel you would be doing a patriotic service, Ann, if you would eliminate the trashy problems. We are giving overseas visitors a very bad impression of our people — LOYAL AMERICAN

Dear Loyal: This column is not a show-case for overseas visitors. It is designed to help people with their problems — people who, for a variety of reasons, feel more comfortable writing to me than going elsewhere.

I don't know what you consider "trashy," but I can guess. If you or your family became involved in an unfortunate situation you would not use the word "trashy," you'd consider it tragic.

I'd be delighted if this space did not have to deal with unwed mothers, adultery, alcoholism and teenage delinquency, but unfortunately, these problems are part of every day living. They are not American problems, they are human problems and people are essentially the same world over.

If your visiting sister wants to live in a world of make-believe, I suggest you buy her Grimm's Fairy Tales for the trip home.

Dear Ann: My problem isn't very exciting — it's about neighbors and lawns.

We have a large lot (100 by 200) and our neighbor's lot is about the same size. For the past two years this neighbor has waited until his lawn was knee-deep in dandelions and the seeds blew all over the block. This year he practiced the same fiendish ritual.

He putters in his yard every evening, scratching a round with a rake, fertilizing and trying out his mowers. He has the kind you ride on, the power reel type, plus the old-fashioned push mower. He mows a few strips then quits. Their lawn is so jungle-like that it ruins the looks of the entire block.

Shall I build a fence, tell him off or make a batch of dandelion wine and go on a bender?

(SPORT) CHESTER
Dear Chester: Fences are expensive. Dandelion wine produces a beast of a hangover. Don't tell him off — just tell him.

Dear Ann: My husband and I have been happily married for 35 years. Separate bedrooms saved our marriage. He snores something terrible.

Now we are planning a trip which means several weeks in hotels. I know I'll never be able to sleep if I share a room with Max, but I want very much to make this trip. What shall I do? — IN A FIX

Dear In: Adjoining hotel rooms may be the only solution. This means more expenses, so make it a shorter trip and enjoy what there is of it.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright, 1960, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Hameetman-Kyle Nuptials Solemnized at St. Mark's

St. Mark's Presbyterian Church was beautifully decorated for the wedding ceremony at 8 o'clock last Saturday evening when Miss Flora Hameetman plighted her marriage vows with Ensign Alan Kyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kyle of Audubon Park, Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Flora Hameetman, 2152 W. 255th St., Lomita is the mother of the bride.

As the large number of guests assembled Margery Wilacy, at the organ, played a background of nuptial music, and accompanied Bruce Weinger, soloist.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her brother, Fred Hameetman, who gave her in marriage. She was gown in a long white sheath of peau de soi which she had designed. The fitted bodice was of embroidered satin and a full overskirt at the back added interest. The gown had Juliet sleeves. Her veil of illusion was

Alumnae Plans Installation

Kappa Delta Alumnae will install new officers at a luncheon at 12:30 today at the Hacienda Hotel. Mrs. Larry Burns, outgoing president, will conduct the installation. All Kappa Deltas in the area are invited to attend. They may call Mrs. Chares E. Barnett, 2306 Manhattan Ave., Manhattan.

in four graduating tiers and was secured by a tiara. Magnolia blossoms and leaves formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Joyce Loedige was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Don Crum and Mrs. Roger Simmons. They wore identical yellow sheaths and carried magnolia blossoms.

Little Tamara Atkins in a yellow frock was the flower girl. Dick Kyle stood as best man and ushers were Walter Brucker and Frank Hillmeyer.

The Rev. Eldon Durham officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held in the church social hall where Miss Gene Kellman registered the guests.

The newlyweds left for Kentucky where on July 2 they will be honored at a reception in Louisville.

After July 4, Ensign Kyle and his bride will go to Corpus Christi, Texas, where Ensign Kyle will be stationed for six months.

The bride was graduated from Louisville University and has been employed as a dental hygienist. Her husband is also a graduate of Louisville University.

Winn-Johnson Vows Are Read in Baptist Ceremony

Before a flower banked altar in the Sunnyside Baptist Church in Los Angeles in an eight o'clock ceremony on June 10, Miss Mary Ann Winn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Luce of Chatsworth exchanged her marriage vows with Steven Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Seaman, 1502 W. 218th St., Torrance.

As the 500 guests assembled to witness the ceremony, Mrs. Dorothy Judy at the organ played a background of nuptial music. She also accompanied Rev. R. Hughes of Chatsworth who sang "O Promise Me," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who approached the altar on the arm of her father, was beautiful in her wedding gown of white silk organza fashioned with a fitted bodice sprinkled with crystals and pearls. The bouffant skirt, in bustle effect, fell into an intermission train. The fingertip illusion veil cascaded from a crown of pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids encircled with stephanotis.

Miss Janice Landee was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of orchid nylon chiffon and carried white orchids with deep orchid centers.

Bridesmaids were Misses Betty Lou Patton, Betty Beebe, Colleen McKay, and Mary Allen. They were all gowned in orchid chiffon and carried bouquets centered by white orchids.

Little Miss Debra Luce, in a floor length white gorgandy dress, dropped lavender rose petals from a lavender basket in the path of the bride.

Verne Wagner performed the duties of best man and ushers were Bill Lowe, Craig Chudy, Roy Reubel and Jim Hewitt.

The Rev. Doug Jeffrey, pastor, officiated at the marriage. A reception was held following the wedding. Miss Carlene Smith was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds spent a week at Las Vegas, and are now at home at Carson Arms in Torrance.

The bride was graduated from Washington High school and Pepperdine college. The bridegroom, a Narbonne High graduate, received his BA degree from Pepperdine.
